

Annual Department Report

1. Overview

The committee reviewed the annual performance of the department and concluded that student enrolment has grown steadily over the last three years. Laboratory facilities were upgraded and several new courses were introduced to meet industry demand. The committee reviewed the annual performance of the department and concluded that student enrolment has grown steadily over the last three years. Laboratory facilities were upgraded and several new courses were introduced to meet industry demand.

The committee reviewed the annual performance of the department and concluded that student enrolment has grown steadily over the last three years. Laboratory facilities were upgraded and several new courses were introduced to meet industry demand.

2. Recommendations

The committee makes the following recommendations for the coming year.

- Increase laboratory hours
- Hire two additional lecturers
- Upgrade the network

3. Conclusion

The committee reviewed the annual performance of the department and concluded that student enrolment has grown steadily over the last three years. Laboratory facilities were upgraded and several new courses were introduced to meet industry demand. The committee reviewed the annual performance of the department and concluded that student enrolment has grown steadily over the last three years. Laboratory facilities were upgraded and several new courses were introduced to meet industry demand.